

Shanghai Finance University (Shanghai-China)

Website	http://english.sfu.edu.cn/
Brief description of the University	Launched in 2003, Shanghai Finance University (SFU) was formerly known as Shanghai Banking School. This University came into being through the joint forces of the Shanghai Municipal Government and the People's Bank of China. Shanghai Finance University is made up of 11 schools, six departments, and four research institutes. The schools and departments offer courses and award academic degrees. They offer English degree programs in finance, accounting, business administration &amp; international economics and trade.
Facts about Shanghai	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• The direct meaning for Shanghai is "Above/Upon the Sea".</li><li>• Shanghai is one of the world's largest cities with a population of just under 25 million people.</li><li>• Food from Shanghai is typically sweeter than other food in China.</li><li>• Shanghai is located in the time-zone called China Standard Time. The city is eight hours ahead of London, and 13 hours ahead of the east coast of the US.</li></ul>

